

Q Do you remember your brother Henry coming to the house on Saturday?

A No, sir; you mean before or after?

Q After.

A No, sir.

Q That is Saturday; the day the bodies were discovered he came there about 6 or 7 o'clock at night; do you remember seeing him?

A I don't remember that, no, sir.

MR. STUDER: Do you remember when you had last seen Henry before the 16th of September?

MR. STEVENS: Before the 16th?

Q That is the day the bodies were found.

A I haven't any idea; all I can say is it was a great while.

Q Had you seen him any during the summer while he was in Lavalette and you were at Bay Head, in 1922?

A No, sir; I remember one time some years before he had come up here for some reason and as I happened to be going down to Bay Head he went as far, I think, as Point Pleasant; it may be Bay Head, with me; it was Bay Head.

Q In the summer of 1922 you don't remember seeing him at the seashore at all?
